

The best art shows and exhibits in NYC

Check out our suggestions for the best art exhibitions you don't want to miss, including recently opened shows and more

By Howard Halle and Shaye Weaver Posted: Wednesday October 7 2020

3. "I Heard A Wild Flower" by Brian Rattiner and Keiko Narahashi

Art Carvalho Park, East Williamsburg

Oct 8 2020-Oct 10 2020

This exhibition features the work of two artists of different generations and mediums—Brooklyn artist Brian Rattiner's gestural landscapes and artist Keiko Narahashi's sculptural ceramic forms—to juxtapose the sprawling nature of our physical world with the shape and set boundaries of it. Rattiner pulls on the beauty of Greece the wilds of Upstate New York in his paintings while Narahashi distills the emotion and meaning she's found in nature in her fantastical sculptures.